Adonai by sarkodie and castro

The song amplifies daily hustle, the need for loyalty and survival in the music business. 4. Sore Remix - Yaw Tog ft. 8. "Forever" was doing great and I dare say loved by foes of the young talent. The song is simply a masterpiece, so well composed and arranged. He denied the admission and continue his business. After five years of waiting and hoping Mr Marfo wrote his fifth B.E.C.E in 2020 and this time he gained admission to his dream school Adisadel College at age 32. He recounts this event as the happiest day of his life. To many a pundit, it was unnecessary and thus energies and resources should have been directed towards another project. 6. He sings about treating his lover to nothing but money. Sherif got his congregates so drunk on his sermon that he became a house hold name overnight. 1st Sermon - Black Sheriff Black Sheriff has released 1st Sermon to the elation of an eager audience. Due to this I went to E-AMASS for only a term. At age 26, Mr Marfo wrote B.E.C.E for the fourth time as a private candidate yet he was given admission not to Adisadel but to his first school Samma Senior High School. 2021 was no different as he teamed with Lynx Entertainment's Kuami Eugene to produce an outright street anthem Anytime one has felt that the hot air balloon of confidence that accompany Kwame's timely records seem to be deflating, the eccentric rapper pulls his magic wand and boom - a hit. He said " for my third attempt I was placed in Ekumfi TI Ahmadiyya to offer science. 5. This song was the party in itself as it became the heart of the dancefloor. Kuami Eugene Biibi Besi is an absolute euphoric jam. I went there on a promise of the then Headmaster of Adisadel College that I would be admitted to my dream College on transfer basis in form 2. Yogot delivers his comic rap in a flawless manner. The video did awesome for the young talent and the original video is about 10million views shy of the remix which has some 23million views. 1. Stormzy & Kwesi Arthur Yaw Tog hit a huge milestone with the remix of his chart-topping single 'Sore' featuring South London-based rapper Stormzy and Kwesi Arthur. The music video for the song which was shot in Kumasi and directed by KooPoKu Studios has over 5 million views on Youtube. 9. Amaarae set and broke all sorts of records last year, "Chic" has simply been on fire. Kwame has been the exception to this rule. Omah Lay This is perhaps the most criticized remix in 2021. And that has been the happiest day in my life since I was ever born". Story edited by Agnes Bekoe/MyinfoGH It is one of the most Streamed foreign songs on the Nigerian Market. Touch it is back and in style. Bibi Besi - Kwame Yogot ft. (more...) Award-winning Gospel singer, Joe Mettle has christened his baby girl, Yeeko - Okyeame Kwame ft. Most rappers ascend and over a decade and half lose their hold significantly. 10. There has been plenty fare ready for the dance floor, be the rave at home or at work, from chartbusters like Kuami Eugene through to singers like Abiana to DJ's like Nektunez and some amazing new entrants into mainstream Ghanaian Music. In 2021, Ghanaian music charted a new course, broke into world charts, filled event venues, and created household names. It became the most Streamed Ghanaian song ever on Spotify and set all sorts of records after only a few months of release. It is easily the most decorated song of the year. With over 3.4 million streams on music streaming service Spotify by July, the song was the second behind Sarkodie's biggest commercial hit song - Adonai which featured Castro who got the streets crazy and turned "Angels" to Blog Breakdown analysts. By September, the song had been Streamed some 5million times on Spotify alone. Yaw Tog caused a stir with his collaboration with Kwesi Arthur and UK International - Stormzy and topped it up with a BET Amplified feature as did Amaarae. The year 2021 was an eventful one of releases, milestones, and recognition of Ghanaian music. 7. Echoke - S3fa ft. Kuami's showing after his "Son of Africa" album was strong and impressive. If any tune could bring the dead back to life it would be the wonderful coral harmonies and melodies of this song doing the trick. Mr. Drew The Queen of Black Avenue Muzik, S3fa, served a hot dance dish with Mr. Drew on the ones and twos. I'm convinced that they're just trying to tie our brains into knots. The song has attracted the attention of several local and international artists culminating in a remix with "The African Giant" - Burna Boy 2. It transported us, mentally, into the pits or peaks of our emotions; to imagined escapes and unimagined adventures. Some Artistes churned out some of their best work yet in 2021. This song put S3fa on the music map and has had her chocked with shows. Easily S3fa's biggest hit and arguably the most successful song of her label, the song took her places and saw the singer dominate charts for weeks. The song had an attention grabbing video and a beautiful dance to it. The release satisfied the thirst of music lovers as they waited impatiently for its release after leaked footages were extensively shared and greatly admired. He wrote B.E.C.E again in 2011 yet was denied admission after attaining aggregate 6. He was given admission to TI Ahmadiyya with the assurance from the Headmaster of Adisadel College of transferring him after Form 2 but he left after his first year and started a lotto business at Adum. After Mr Marfo's year at TI Ahmadiyya he left without transferring to Adisadel. In an interview, the "Rockstar" said "Dollar on you talks about the Significance of Sharing". The song quickly became a regular feature on radio, street corners, pubs and parties. For over two decades, Okyeame Kwame has been relevant and churns out a huge hit every 3 years or so. These words kept eating me up and made me forget the promise. Dollar on you - Kuami Eugene Kwame reclaims his place as a bona fide hit maker with "Dollar On You". Despite having aggregate 6, I was still denied to be enrolled in Adisco. With the adage "no Santa no school in Ghana" with 'santa' as Adisadel, Mr Marfo never gave up. The ease with which two of today's most revered songwriters share this track is astonishing—their voices the perfect complement in tone, timbre, power, and style. Over the last two years, as Covid-19 kept us largely at home, entertainment gave us some respite, but sweet holy sound—music—gave us somewhere to go. Ghanaian Music is alive, and so are we. Do note that there are songs which might have done better than those which made it into the year's chart but were released the year before. He says "A year later in 2021, finally! finally! God answered my prayers and gave me my long awaited childhood dream school Adisadel College to study Computer Science on the 1st March, 2021 at age 32. The song has a captivating afro dance vibe and was accompanied by an amazing star studded video. It would certainly be safe to put your dollar on this outright banger. Praise - Fameye Praise is easily one of the best records of 2021 and perhaps the best Fameye has delivered in his entire career. Why should I be enrolled as a transfer student to Adisco? The beautiful reggae tone track blends an afro and dance vibe which is off the hook. Forever Remix - Gyakie ft. As established talents like Sarkodie and Stonebwoy kept the pace with releases, new names like Black Sheriff & Gyakie did enough to stake their claim with critically-acclaimed projects that shot them right atop the echelon. Several top entertainment personalities drooled over the progress of this fast-rising act. There are tempo changes and random style left turns. The self-styled leader of Sad Boys Country - Kweku Frimpong has a delicate responsibility; thus far, he has kept to his promise of delivering nothing but trouble. (more...) Ghanaian singer, Mzbel is having a huge debate with family and on social media about the way forward following her father's death. Below is a list of the top 10 songs released in 2021 which had the most airplay. Listening to the song, it seems almost criminal that Kuami Eugene and Kwame Yogot had never collaborated before. 2nd Sermon - Black Sheriff Black Sheriff's introductory hit 'First Sermon' was only a sequel to the singular 2021 hit but he was given admission at Sammo Senior High School. He enrolled at Sammo Senior High school and completed his secondary education in 2007. The 3-minute drill project formed part of his "Road To The Tape" series. His first release of 2021 was on steroids. Kuami Eugene In the hay days of Dr. Kwame Nkrumah there was a popular phrase used to describe him; "Nkrumah Never Dies" - This best describes Okyeame Kwame's spell in the Ghanaian Music Industry. 3. Last year saw KIDi follow up the success of "Say Cheese" with an amazing international breaking release - Touch it. Touch it - KIDi This song was simply untouchable. After completion Mr. Marfo ventured into footwear on the streets of Adum and Moro market. In 2010, Mr Marfo realised his inability to fulfil his dream of enrolling at Adisadel College and decided to write B.E.C.E again but he was not given admission to Adisadel College. He says... "Three years later in 2010, I couldn't stand the desire of not fulfilling my dream school. The song depicts a raw and fearless street spiel, that blasted him to the status of a viral sensation. The song was produced by Stallion and is ferried in aching desire and rebellious glamour. By end of year, she had become the most Streamed Ghanaian Female Artist on Spotify. I marshalled courage and got myself enrolled in Modern Educational Centre at Awaakwa Sepasse in Kumasi to rewrite BECE. At the VGMA's when KIDi said he would be back, little did we know that comeback was of a song and the height it would conquer. The song has "forever" opened doors for the talent. However, months down the lane "Team Gyakie" has been proven right with the tune blowing the tightly shut and closely guarded Nigerian Music market wide open. This was the story until KIDi "Touched it". (more...) Ghanaian singer Bisa Kdei has finally set dates for his 2022 USA tour. It is a song you cannot stop listening to, it's a Praise of Fameye's career, it is as though the rapper/singer sort to showcase his writing skill and exhibit all the music in him. Praise shares the story of his life and could but for a few words pass for Gospel song of the year. Here are a few records the song blessed the industry with... 21 million + streams on audio platforms 16.9 million+ views on YouTube 125+ million views on Tiktok It's #11 on Billboard World Digital Sales It's #7 on UK Afrobeat Chart It's #61 Global Shazam Chart Trending in over 28 countries on Shazam Charting in over 51 countries on Spotify Charting in over 49 countries on Apple Music By: Richmond Adu-Poku Ghana Music Live Rihanna is expecting her first child with rapper boyfriend ASAP Rocky.
